

Wyoming Nonprofit Network Board Elections – January 11, 2022

New:

Tina Conley is a Wyoming native that started her career in the nonprofit sector in 2002 as a Head Start teacher in Gillette Wyoming. Prior to this Tina held various positions working with individuals with developmental disabilities in the Riverton and Lander areas. She is currently the Executive Director of I-REACH 2, Inc which is a service provider for people with developmental and intellectual disabilities. Tina holds a master's degree in Nonprofit Management from Regis University, is currently a member of the Wyoming Workforce Development Council, and serves as secretary for the Wyoming Community Service providers.

A third-generation Jacksonite, Will Schwartz has been shaped by the values of the Jackson Hole community and is deeply motivated to promote a thriving valley for future generations. He brings over a decade of leadership experience in programs, operations, finance, and strategy to the Community Foundation. Previously, he served as the Chief of Staff at Summer Search, a national youth development nonprofit. He is also a proud alum of AmeriCorps (where he ran an after-school program for two years for underserved students in Columbus, Ohio), Education Pioneers, and NOLS.

John Masterson has played a significant part of the legal community in Wyoming and Casper for decades. His expertise and judgment are and have been relied upon by the state, its governors, and local and national businesses. An attorney with Welborn Sullivan Meck & Tooley, he focuses his practice on the areas of Litigation, Energy and Natural Resources, Governmental Relations, Transactional Matters, and Corporate and Non-Profit Governance. John is an active participant in the Casper community, serving on the board of Troopers Drum & Bugle Corps in addition to other non-profits, benefitting health care, education, and private grant making.

Renewing:

Sabrina Lane was raised in the beautiful mountains of Colorado and moved to Cheyenne in 1997. Sabrina started her non-profit career in 2000 with the Laramie County Community College Foundation where she served as both the Associate Director and Executive Director and was responsible for operational and financial management, strategic planning, donor development, engagement and stewardship. In 2015, Sabrina joined the Wyoming 2-1-1 Board of Directors and in June 2018 she was named as the Executive Director. Sabrina is a proud graduate of Leadership Cheyenne and currently serves on the board of the Wyoming Nonprofit Network and Wyoming VOAD.

Molly Box is a Cheyenne native and Owner/CEO of Prairie Sage Creative, LLC. She has been providing a la carte graphic/web design, marketing consulting, and social media management for regional businesses and nonprofits for more than 10 years. Molly lives in Wellington, CO, with her daughter Ivy, her husband Nat, and their rescue dogs. Molly is proud to be on the Board of the Wyoming Nonprofit Network, especially since many of her clients are Wyoming nonprofits. She is also a member of the Colorado Nonprofit Association, the Cheyenne Chamber of Commerce, the Wellington Chamber, and is a long-time volunteer for Black Dog Animal Rescue.
